REPORT

Date: April 14, 2024

Venue: Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion, Beed

Introduction:

Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion has a long-standing tradition of promoting self-reliance and entrepreneurship among rural girls. As part of its mission to empower women through skill development, the college annually distributes sewing machines to poor and needy students. This event, held on April 14 each year, also serves to honor Dr. B. R. Ambedkar for his contributions to social equality and justice.

Event Overview:

The Sewing Machine Distribution Event is one of the institution's best practices, reflecting its commitment to the development of rural girls by equipping them with the necessary tools to become entrepreneurs. This initiative aligns with the college's vision of empowering women and fostering a spirit of self-reliance.

On April 14, 2024, Deogiri Pratishthan Tulsi College of Fashion successfully distributed 160 sewing machines to deserving students, marking a significant increase from previous years. This increase is a testament to the growing impact of the college's efforts in enhancing the skills and livelihoods of young women in the rural areas of Beed and surrounding regions.

Past Distribution Statistics:

- 2019: 20 sewing machines distributed
- 2021: 35 sewing machines distributed
- 2022: 50 sewing machines distributed
- 2023: 75 sewing machines distributed
- 2024: 160 sewing machines distributed

Tribute to Dr. B. R. Ambedkar:

The event also serves as an occasion to pay tribute to Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, whose legacy inspires the college's mission to uplift marginalized communities. Dr. Ambedkar's work towards social justice and equality resonates deeply with the college's objectives, and the sewing machine distribution is a fitting homage to his vision of empowering the underprivileged.

Impact and Outcomes:

The distribution of sewing machines not only provides the students with a means to generate income but also instills in them the confidence to pursue entrepreneurial ventures. This initiative has proven to be a catalyst for social change, enabling rural girls to contribute to their families' financial stability and break the cycle of poverty.
